

Juneann comes to Sigma Gamma Rho as one of the newest members to officially join the team, serving as Special Projects and Initiatives Manager. Prior to this role, Juneann served as a Consultant to the organization, providing strategic, compliance, operations, and project management support.

Outside of Sigma, Juneann is the CEO and Founder of George Van Nooten (GVN), a boutique operations consulting firm. At her firm, Juneann works behind the scenes elevating c-suite-executive-level women in fortune 500 companies, small businesses, and non-profits by helping them deliver on their promises and deliver them with excellence!

Throughout her professional career, Juneann has been referred to as the Operation Guru, The Chameleon, the Disruptor, and “Black Girl Magic” for her innovative spirit, her ability to be resourceful, and her tenacity to turn vision into reality.

Newly married, Juneann enjoys traveling and exploring with her husband and splits her time between Newark (Brick City) and her hometown, Shoreditch, London, UK. Her lifelong philosophy is to learn, grow, and innovate.